Dear George,

I just wanted to let you know how well the custom paint in the model home at Mondavio has been received. There is not an open house that I don't receive positive comments on the beautiful 'leather' paint in the master bath. Many are amazed at the exacting lines through out the model on the soft rounded corners where the accent paint meets the wall color.

I have been proud to recommend your services to many of my buyers, who all have been very pleased when they hire you. I will continue to recommend you in the future.

Sincerely,

Mark Smith
